PERSONALS.

Mr. I. G. Harlan, of Millard, has gone on a business trip to the south part of the state.

W. J. Wilkes has bought the Cover property in the northeast part of town, and will move his present residence into his new purchase.

J. J. Keim & Sons have bought the Harrington farm, south of Ringo's Point, consisting of 180 acres, and the boys will move on to it in the spring.

Mrs. T. C. Campbell has been called to Columbus, Ohio, by the serious illness of her father.

James Kearns, the great meat man, has bought the Phelps property in the northeast part of town, and will soon move into it.

Mr. T. Lankard of Ringo's Point, spent a few hours in town one day this week.

We are under obligations to Mr. W. T. Johnson, of this place, for some copies of Deadwood papers.

James Wimber, who has been for some time in Colorado, returned a few days ago, looking well.

Miss Helen Chapman, who has been spending the summer in New York, returned home a few days since.

Miss Francis Guise went to LaBelle Saturday, and spent Sunday with her sister, Miss Emma, who is filling the position of music teacher in the Academy, at that place.

Elder Russell returned from Scotland county last week. He sold while there three hundred bushels of corn, being his share from the rent of his farm.

Miss Mary Gates, who has been visiting relatives in this place, returned to Carthage this week.

We learn that Mrs. E. O. Gates thinks of visiting the far south this winter.

Maurice Bond left last night for Brookfield.

Prof. D. Shryock has returned home to remain, after quite a successful tour as an instructor of music. Prof. Shryock is an accomplished musician, and has a long and thorough experience as a teacher.

On Thursday last we received a very pleasant call from Dr. Geo. Burns, of Green county, Ill., who with his wife is visiting his cousin, A. H. Burks, of this county.

Miss Maria Burns, of Lawrence county, Pa., is visiting friends in this county.

Mr. Rufus Carver, of Walnut township, who has been quite sick for some weeks past, has so far recovered as to be in town this week.

Dr. Murdy and wife, of Moulton, Iowa, spent a few days this week among friends here.

Mrs. Bradley, of Calloway county, daughter of Judge O. H. Beeman, is visiting friends in this place.

Tom Gibson has discovered a new way to buy clothing cheap. Ask him how it is.

John Wilkes has earned the title of "old reliable" in the grocery business. Call and see him.

"He is nothing but a little northern yankee and a radical at that." This was the term contemptuously applied to Prof. Krall, by the "non-partisan" independent candidate for circuit judge, when that popular professor was kicked out of the normal last year. We wonder how many of the "little northern yankees" will vote for Mr. Ellison.

The Democrat came forward this week with a reiteration of its old supply of filth and slime thrown upon Mr. Harrington and Mr. Stahl, but such stuff will have no effect upon the honest voters of Adair county the people know just what sort of dirt coming from such a source amounts to and will elect Mr. Harrington and Mr. Stahl, by good round majorities.

Yes the people want a change and will vote for Mr. Millan.

Let every greenbacker remember that the rule is when you find an Ellison man you find him also for Hatch.

In this issue we give the evidence which silences forever the foul calumnies circulated and reiterated by the Democrat, after he knew they were false, against S. F. Stahl, our candidate for county judge, and one of the most worthy men in the county. The people can now see the villainess of these attacks, and they will show their disapproval by running Mr. Stahl ahead of his ticket.

Do not forget when choosing between Millan and Ellison that the banks are all supporting Ellison, and further that Ellison has never given a decision adversely to a banker or his interests. Bankers control votes.

"Which way is your musket a pintin to-day?"

List of Letters Remaining in the Post-Office Oct. 23d: Mrs. Polley Axton, Mrs. Mary Almer, Mrs. Annie G. Beggs, Miss C. Coop, J. M. Flood, R. E. Hubbell, Miss Nancy Lee, D. C. Miller, R. P. McLaughlin, M. Patten, Allis Pughey, John Stairs, J. H. Sloan, Alma Smith, Mrs. Mary L. Woods.

Judge Ellison is non-partisan, say his friends, yet he adjourned court last Monday and Tuesday in Schuyler county, making an extra expense of nearly $200 upon the tax-payers, and all to give the democrats an opportunity to hold two political meetings.

LOCAL GRAPHICS.

The worst fool in the world is an old fool.

Greenwood seems to have found out "who struck Billy Patterson."

Mr. Harriott, in this issue, puts a quietus on the silly falsehoods against Mr. Stahl. Read what he says.

HENRY F. MILLAN has no brother to whom he can throw his influence as judge, sad, ain't it?

When you get a man angry you have him at a disadvantage. The great better (P. F. G.) boiled over Friday night. Too bad.

We notice the Democrat has hauled down its ticket. Is this preparatory to another "hop," or is it merely getting ready for the inevitable defeat?

Beware of men claiming to be republicans, yet asking you to substitute democrats for republicans on the ticket.

Nine out of ten republicans are liars and thieves—Oldham at the democratic club Friday night.

Greenwood let himself loose like a young cyclone Friday night of last week. He had just read what a "democrat" who was a member of that convention "had to say." Facts hurt.

Mr. Geo. W. Mendell, late of Vevay, Ind., a lawyer who comes with excellent credentials, has formed a law partnership with Mr. Geo. W. Cooper, of this place. See card in this issue. Mr. Mendell is a very pleasant and talented gentleman, and we hope our citizens will give him a cordial welcome to our midst.

When Ellison and his friends talk to republicans he is non-partisan, but they take care to urge his claims upon democrats because he is a democrat.

"When the D—l was sick the D—l a monk would be, etc. etc." Andrew Ellison is "mighty sick," but the people of this district will make him a "little sicker" on Tuesday next.

Political Rumors.

It is rumored there will be more sickness than ever after next Tuesday.

It is rumored that Greenwood has at last consented to be slaughtered for Bro. Andy's sake.

It is rumored he will only hold two years if elected, that Cousin Bill in 1882 will let him have his place in congress.

It is rumored that if Bro. Andy gets elected, and serves two years, and in 1882 gets Cousin Bill's place, that Bro. Jim will fill out Bro. Andy's unexpired term.

It is rumored Congressman Bill feels blue about the gills.

It is rumored that the democrats have given up the entire county ticket, and will now make the struggle to carry the county for circuit judge only.

It is rumored that any man on the ticket will be traded for circuit judge, from Hancock to constable.

It is rumored that Sol. Stahl will lead the ticket in his district, and beat his competitor so far they will never take time to count.

It is rumored that John Shaver's majority will be four hundred or more, let either the independent or greenbacker pull off.

It is rumored that the democrats intend to print a large number of republican tickets with Ellison's name, written or printed in, all such are bogus, look out.

It is rumored that Dr. Johns wants to start a new democratic party. One of better material than the present.

It is rumored that candidates should pay their city tax, whether the law by which they are collectable is lame or not. Men should do right not because they are made but because it is right.

It is rumored that Dr. Johns will retire from the journalistic field in a few weeks, to enter other more new and unexplored regions.

It is rumored that those gentlemen who expect republicans to scratch some of the regular nominees of their party will be sadly mistaken. Republicans don't scratch.

It is rumored that Millan's majority in the county will be between five and seven hundred. That his majority in the circuit will be from eight to twelve hundred.

It is rumored that lots of dirty work will be done by the democrats next Tuesday. Beware of the smiling faced man who approaches you with "now just vote for my friend, he is a good fellow if he is a democrat." The republican opponent is better.

It is rumored that HE must carry the county if it takes all the beer in the town to do it.

It is rumored that the Post-Dispatch will have to append affidavits of trustworthy persons to each column, before even the average democrat will put any trust in its sayings.

It is rumored that Hancock, English, and Voorries sent some telegrams to a certain man in St. Joseph, Mo.

It is rumored that the democratic party would be willing to pension Dr. John and Joseph Pulitzer if they would leave it. We hope they will not enter the republican ranks. Like Nashy, they kill everything they join.

Judge Ellison is non-partisan, say his friends, yet he adjourned court last Monday and Tuesday in Schuyler county, making an extra expense of nearly $200 upon the tax-payers, and all to give the democrats an opportunity to hold two political meetings.

Greentop Graphics.

Our town is booming. Last Saturday it was crowded with teams and wagons. On Main street it was almost impossible for teams to pass. Our merchants are doing a good business. They have purchased the largest stock of goods ever seen in Greentop for several years.

R. R. Wells shipped one car load of hogs and one of oats this week.

L. Hunt's little boy while out in the yard playing fell down on an axe severely cutting his face.

Miss B. Davis died last Thursday at 11 o'clock, A. M., five miles west of this place. Her remains were brought to this place for burial.

Mrs. P. Owens, of this place, died Tuesday last at 10 o'clock, A. M. Her remains were buried here.

John Green has moved into his new residence.

M. H. Lewis, road overseer, is getting our roads in a good fix around town. We are glad to note these improvements on our roads.

Judge Roberts and wife have returned from Kansas. The judge seems highly pleased with Kansas land.

M. H. Lewis had a swarm of bees come out last Sunday.

R. Furnish and E. R. Brown are the boss wrestlers of this place. They got to wrestling in A. M. Lind's store. Brown fell down and his head coming in contact with the counter he was knocked senseless and did not know anything until the next morning.

W. Buckle and wife are visiting here this week.

Brashear Items.

Death has entered our midst and removed one of the bright gems from our Sabbath school ranks. May Hopkins aged about ten years was taken sick Wednesday the 13th, inst., and died suddenly the Friday following. She mingled with us in a Sabbath school concert as late as the evening of the 9th in bright spirits and apparently usual health excepting some few chills. In such a brief space of time was she snatched home. May was indeed a lovable child, manifesting an intelligence and earnestness of character exceeding her years. Her loss is deeply felt by the entire community and doubly so by her parents, she being their only daughter, and the father having been afflicted for many years. An elegant wreath of flowers was an offering of respect by her Sunday school teacher and members of the class.

Mrs. Mattie Cleveland closed her visit here and has gone to her home near Chillicothe.

Miss Sarah Thrasher returned this week from a visit to friends in Marion county.

Mr. Hendricks, of Monroe county is visiting his sister Mrs. J. Thresher, of this place.

J. Elliott and wife returned Thursday from a visit to a sick grandchild, daughter of J. Bailey, of Kirksville. They report the child improving.

J. Lee's new dwelling in the southwest part of town is rapidly nearing completion.

Rev. J. Herbert manifests his appreciation of the spirit improvement of the age by having a brand new kitchen attached to his dwelling.

REPORTER.

Look out for bogus or fraudulent tickets, scrutinize your ticket closely, and vote nothing but the genuine republican ticket.

REPUBLICANS can't afford to scratch a ticket this time. Let no personal matter interfere with your voting the ticket straight.

It is the duty of every republican to consider himself a committee of one to work earnestly from now until 6 o'clock p. m. next Tuesday, for the whole republican ticket. See that every man votes it straight.

If there is a republican in Adair Co., who thinks of scratching a name from his ticket, and supplying that of a democrat, let him think well before he takes the step, and ask himself what he is to gain. When he does it he is slapping his friends in the face, and playing into the hands of the enemies of his party. Don't do it.

St. Louis at Your Door.

The campaign is fully opened. W. B. Harlan has just returned from market with a full stock, large, full and complete, comprising dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes. A full line of ladies' cloaks at all prices; also notions, hats, caps and gloves ladies' and gentlemen's furnishings goods, all bought low for cash. Come in and see before you buy. We will save you money. Will not be undersold by any one in North Missouri. Post yourselves in prices and come to W. B. Harlan's and get your goods cheaper than anywhere else in town.

W. B. HARLAN.

STRATTON—Nine head of sheep—8 bucks and weathers, and one ewe. Any information in regard to the above stock will be liberally rewarded by Isa G. HARLAN, Millard, Mo.

New Livery Firm.

D. C. McCarthy has moved into the Brick Livery Stable and formed a co-partnership with Mr. French. The firm will be known as French & McCarthy. This is one of the best stables in the west and is well stocked for a first class business. Give them a call.

Harrington is the poor man's friend, he was one who helped out six days road labor down to three.

Harrington worked hard to prevent the taxing of growing crops. He is still opposed to it, and will use his best endeavors not to have them taxed.

ACCIDENT.—A little son of I. W. Snell fell down stairs yesterday morning, and fractured both bones of the left forearm. Dr. S. Wetnam and Golden rendered the necessary surgical assistance.

Be a little cautious; the man you gave the $1.00 and promised the $10.00 is a Shaver man, and will vote for him.

"The Democrat advises every democrat to throw away for the time being, any personal feeling that may be against Greenwood in consequence of a discharge of public duties as prosecutor of criminals." It is not a discharge of "public duty" that the people complain of, but a disregard. It is incompetency and a selfish regard for personal interests.

DIED.—In Kirksville, Mo., Oct. 21st, 1880, Edwin Kathan, youngest son of Wm. H. & L. Isabella Friely, aged three years and five months.

"Eddie, where art thou, for I gaze around, And see thee not, I listen for the sound Of thy dear voice, whose soft and gentle tone Of love and kindness, came to meet mine own. I speak, I call thee, Eddie, dost thou hear Thy mother's voice? ah, all is still and dreary. No answering word of kindness greets my ear."

Oh! thou art gone, the cold dark angel came, And here thy spirit from the sinking frame, Over thy dear form I've breathed a last farewell, My dear, dear Eddie, how shall language tell The depth of anguish which laments thy doom. So dearly destined for the silent tomb. While busy memory paints the vivid scene, Of pleasures past, of joys which once have been, But all are past, and I myself must wait, A dreary mourner, sad and desolate.

But hush! my wayward heart be still, And humbly bend to meet thy Father's will. He called thee, Eddie, from this world of care, Thy holy joys of paradise to share. Thy happy soul has found a glad release, Thou breathest now, the air of love and peace.

And shall I mourn, when thou so truly blest, Hast found a home of pure and lasting rest? Oh, no! but upward will I fix my trust, And then, oh, then, when this poor drooping dust, Shall sleep in death, most gladly will I rise, To hail thy spirit in its native skies. In yonder heaven, washed pure from every stain, Oh, Eddie, dear, we soon shall meet again."
